Call for Papers

The 2017 IEEE First Ukraine Conference on Electrical and Computer Engineering (UKRCON) general theme, Celebrating 25 Years of IEEE Ukraine Section, reflects the profound impact of IEEE on the Ukrainian Science for the last 25 years. IEEE Ukraine Section was founded on November 21, 1991 and for 25 years helps Ukrainian scientists find ways for cooperation with various international partners through IEEE conferences and grants.

We invite You to submit paper and take part in the IEEE UKRCON-2017 to celebrate together 25th Anniversary of IEEE Activities in Ukraine!

Conference Topics

Track 1: Microwave Techniques, Antennas & Radar Systems

- A. Microwave Theory and Techniques
- B. Antennas & Propagation
- C. Space, Aerospace and Airborne Technologies
- D. Radar Systems, Geoscience and Remote Sensing

Track 2: Bioengineering & Robotics

- A. Biomedical Engineering, Circuits and Systems
- B. Medical Image & Signal Processing
- C. Robotics, Control & Intelligent Systems

Track 3: Energy Systems, Industry Application & Industry 4.0

- A. Power & Energy Circuits and Systems
- B. Smart Grid & Energy Markets
- C. Industry 4.0, Automation, Industrial Electronics & Industry Application
- D. Vehicular Electrotechnology Equipment and Systems

Track 4: Nanoelectronics, Electron Devices & Embedded Systems

- A. Micro- & Nanoelectronics and Technologies
- B. Electron Devices & Integrated Circuits
- C. Optics and Photonics
- D. MEMS, SoC, NoC and Embedded Systems
- E. CAD and EDA Tools, Methods and Algorithms

Track 5: Communications, Systems & Computer Engineering

- A. Communications and Networks
- B. Systems Engineering, Risk Management & Decision Making Systems
- C. Internet of Things, Data Science, Machine Learning & Artificial intelligence
- D. Computer and Software Techniques

Track 6: Education & History

- A. Educational Research, Methods, Materials, Programs and Technology
- B. MOOCs and Blended Learning
- C. Historical Milestones of Electrical and Computer Engineering
